An important part of our discipleship is to pray for our community and one another. This week you are asked to pray for the following and their families: Alison Young, Marion Andrews, Richard Angell and Margaret Angell - Alpas, Nii Annam, Cherry Arnal, Shehzad Ashiq, Audrey and David Bainbridge, Monique Brocklesby, Jayne Brown

Turnaround Update. In response to last week's appeal, I was able to visit the Salvation Army shop at Filton Park to source medium boxers. While there, I was given a box of 40 new blankets to take to Turnaround.

So along with the contents of the box of goodies from church, I did a delivery this week.

All of the donations were received with open arms and grateful thanks.

You will all be pleased to know that the box at the back of church is now empty and ready to be refilled.

Thank you to everyone who has made contributions. Jenny Cornell

Messy Church. It was a busy morning at Messy Church last Saturday. There were lots of crafts and activities to enjoy, including: mini golf, toasting marshmallows, 'shining the light' by making a stained glass window, making an edible burning bush.... We learnt about how God can use us to share Jesus' love, no matter how old or young we are.

Horfield Site.

Property update. We will be doing some spring cleaning and decorating in the school summer holidays. If you are able to give us a hand, speak to Lou for more information.

Discussion Group Heaven

In the book 'Heaven', Paula Gooder considers the ways in which the Bible sees heaven and earth connecting, and explores all the major strands of belief about life after death, including the role of paradise, and what happens between death and resurrection. She shows how the biblical writers see heaven and earth as closely connected, so that what happens in heaven affects events on earth and vice versa. You might like to buy the book and read along with us, but it is not essential.
